Presents a Keith Wilts Seminar

Commercial Lines – Annual Checkup

The advanced seminar will analyze significant commercial subjects and the facts behind the most recent changes and how they affect you and your clients. Learn how coverage can vary significantly depending on which edition of the policy or endorsement an insurer uses. Commercial Property, Business Income and Extra Expense, CGL, Additional Insured Endorsements, Commercial Auto, Garage, Crime, and Businessowners coverages will be reviewed. The seminar will enable participants to better assist their insured's in satisfying individual exposures to loss through the insurance and non-insurance options that exist to treat them. It will make the participant aware of the facts behind what is new and what has and has not changed in commercial coverages. The seminar will also examine significant loss exposures and coverage issues that exist for today's commercial client. Participant's will learn why identification and satisfaction of an individual's exposures to loss should be a systematic process that addresses the needs of all parties involved - insured, insurer and agent.

This seminar will be presented by Keith Wilts, CPCU, CIC. Keith's seminars are not only full of timely and pertinent information but are fun to attend. Keith presentation style and his sense of humor makes each class an experience in itself. "Fun with learning" is how one previous attendee described his seminars and his style. Keith conducts over 160 training classes throughout this country annually.

The seminar will be held at the Holiday Inn Eastgate, 4501 Eastgate Blvd. Cincinnati, Ohio 45245 on Tuesday, August 19, 2008. The seminar will start at 9:00 a.m. and last until 4:00 p.m. Kentucky Concentration – Property/Casualty
